Be part of the 100,000

5 to 19 October 2017

The Football People action weeks are the biggest campaign in Europe to tackle discrimination and celebrate diversity in football. We aim to get 100,000 people taking part in events that contribute to social change in over 50 countries.

Get involved

The weeks are open to everyone regardless of who you are, or your interest in football. Supporters, players, clubs, ethnic minorities, LGBT groups, activists, female activists, schools and NGOs are all involved in taking a stand against discrimination and for inclusion through football.

Participating is simple:

- 1 Organise activities between the 5th and 19th October 2017 that meet the objectives
- 2 Involve as many people as possible
- 3 Show that you are part of the movement by using #FootballPeople
- 4 Share your activities with us, we can help publicise and bring it into one movement

How Fare can support

We might be able to help you find partners and generate publicity for your event. You can also apply for funding. We can support the best proposals for grassroots activities with up to 500 €. Apply from 1 August to 10 September 2017 on www.farenet.org.

Get creative

There is no limit as to what you can do as long as your activity relates to football and aims to bring about a positive change. These are some ideas, but you can do something completely different:

- Events against homophobia
- Workshops to empower and champion women in the game
- Match day choreographies
- Panel discussions
- Exhibitions celebrating the diversity at your club/fans/players
- Q+As with players
- Involve your club, (ex) players, other fans and local communities
